Combatendo o Câncer Colorretal (Portuguese Edition) Tim Darvell

Em setembro de 2012, minha mãe passou por uma importante cirurgia para remover um tumor cancerígeno em seu intestino. Antes da cirurgia, estávamos cientes da possibilidade de que ela talvez tivesse que ficar sob cuidado intensivo por 24 horas depois da cirurgia. Foi um longo dia esperando por notícias e a enfermaria não nos dava nenhuma atualização, o que só piorou nossos nervos já atormentados. Finalmente, às 6 da tarde, nos deram a notícia de que minha mãe estava de volta à enfermaria. Eu, meu irmão e minha irmã fomos até o hospital esperando achar uma paciente pós operatória sonolenta e enferma. Ficamos surpresos em encontrar mamãe sentada e falando pelos cotovelos.
