Fr. Cassian Yuhaus has written essentially a love letter to the National Shrine of Saint Ann in Scranton, PA. First off, he gives a brief history of the origins of the shrine Basilica and great Novena. What lies at the heart of the book, however are the testimonials of people who have prayed to St. Ann in need and had their prayers answered. The amazing, touching testimonials correspond to three central truths of our faith: the Communion of Saints; the sacredness of life; and the power of faith to heal. Readers will find themselves moved not only by the testimonials, but by the great devotion shown to St. Ann and the warm feelings and joy visitors exhibit after a trip to the shrine. As this shrine becomes internationally acclaimed and pilgrims from many continents travel to seek the intercession of Saint Ann, they will find an intensity of faith as they pray in the Basilica.
