Keet knows the only good thing about moving away from her Alabama home is that she'll live near her beloved grandfather. When Keet starts school, it's even worse than she expected, as the kids tease her about her southern accent. Now Keet, who can "talk the whiskers off a catfish," doesn't want to open her mouth. Slowly, though, while fishing with her grandfather, she learns the art of listening. Gradually, she makes her first new friend. But just as she's beginning to settle in, her grandfather has a stroke, and even though he's still nearby, he suddenly feels ever-so-far-away. Keet is determined to reel him back to her by telling him stories; in the process she finds her voice and her grandfather again. This lyrical and deeply emotional novel-in-verse celebrates the power of story and of finding one's individual voice.

From reader reviews:

George Valentine:

As people who live in the modest era should be update about what going on or facts even knowledge to make these keep up with the era and that is always change and progress. Some of you maybe will update themselves by reading books. It is a good choice for you but the problems coming to anyone is you don't know which you should start with. This Catching a Storyfish is our recommendation to make you keep up with the world. Why, as this book serves what you want and wish in this era.

George Foulds:

People live in this new moment of lifestyle always aim to and must have the extra time or they will get lots of stress from both day to day life and work. So, once we ask do people have extra time, we will say absolutely yes. People is human not really a robot. Then we question again, what kind of activity are there when the spare time coming to anyone of course your answer will probably unlimited right. Then do you try this one, reading textbooks. It can be your alternative in spending your spare time, typically the book you have read is actually Catching a Storyfish.

Corey Mullen:

Is it you who having spare time then spend it whole day through watching television programs or just lying on the bed? Do you need something new? This Catching a Storyfish can be the answer, oh how comes? A fresh book you know. You are thus out of date, spending your spare time by reading in this new era is common not a nerd activity. So what these publications have than the others?

Guadalupe Leatherman:

As a university student exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library or to make summary for some publication, they are complained. Just minor students that has reading's soul or real their passion. They just do what the trainer want, like asked to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading really. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring and can't see colorful photos on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important to suit your needs. As we know that on this age, many ways to get whatever you want. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Catching a Storyfish can make you experience more interested to read.
