Nadando a casa (Nuevos Tiempos) (Spanish Edition) Deborah Levy

Finalista del Premio Booker 2012 y del Premio Nacional del Libro en la categoría de mejor autor

«Una novela breve y fílmica, rebosante de secretos. La prosa es luminosa y, a pesar de tratar temas oscuros como la depresión y la pérdida, despliega una inmensa ternura». Daily Mail

Nada más llegar con su familia a una casa en las colinas con vistas a Niza, Joe descubre el cuerpo de una chica en la piscina. Pero Kitty Finch está viva, sale del agua desnuda con las uñas pintadas de verde y se presenta como botánica... ¿Qué hace ahí? ¿Qué quiere de ellos? Y ¿por qué la esposa de Joe le permite quedarse?

Nadando a casa es un libro subversivo y trepidante, una mirada implacable sobre el insidioso efecto de la depresión en personas aparentemente estables y distinguidas. Con una estructura muy ajustada, la historia se desarrolla en una casa de veraneo a lo largo de una semana en la que un grupo de atractivos e imperfectos turistas en la Riviera son llevados al límite. Con un humor mordaz, la novela capta la atención del lector de inmediato, sobrellevando su lado tenebroso con ligereza.
