This book looks at a variety of issues important to youth who want to grow in their relationship with God. Woven through more than one hundred meditations is the guarantee of God's unconditional love and acceptance, the assurance that each young person is a worthwhile creation, and the challenge to courageously grow in faith.

All the topics covered in the book were suggested by youth themselves in the author's Sunday school classes, and at a national youth convention. Another aspect that makes this book unique is that each topical section includes specific suggestions for "living it out."
