HEALING THE WIDOWER'S HEART: A Sweet, Clean Western Historical Romance Darlene Carson
A sweet and clean historical Western story with a happy ending.

He would do anything for Johanna. Except forget his first wife.

Nelson Deere is a widower still haunted by his first love. After years of living alone, however, he meets Johanna and his world is turned upside-down. She's lovely, smart, and kind--in other words, just the type of woman he needs. But is he ready for a new love, when he can still feel the old one?

When Johanna looks at Nelson, she doesn't just see a good man. She sees a man who needs her help. She knows that her love could make him whole again, but almost as soon as they're married, his guilt starts driving a wedge between them. How can she mend her husband's heart when he won't let her love him?
