Be IN THE KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

Doing business across borders is very different from doing business across town—subtle and not-so-subtle differences in attitudes and etiquette play a big role.

Did you know?

- Bowing in Japan isn't just bending at the waist; where you put your hands and how deep you bow makes a big difference!
- Don't give gifts in groups of four or nine. "Four" and "nine" are unlucky because the words sound like "death" and "hardship" in Japanese.
- Don't expect Japanese colleagues to come out and say "no." They will usually say "maybe."

In the Know in Japan helps you:

- Fit right in by understanding local manners, etiquette, and behaviors
- Navigate through everyday life with tips for the whole family
- Get an insider's perspective on the social and business environment

The book includes a FREE 60-minute CD with the key phrases you need to make a great impression.

From the Package edition.
