Day One, Year One is a collection of short stories, poems, and artwork from emerging writers and illustrators who are shaping the literary landscape today.

From messy breakup stories, post-apocalyptic tales, and coming-to-America dramas to contemplative, sometimes comical poetry, this collection explores the great topics: love, hope, and, of course, a little debauchery.

It's an anthology to keep at your side—you never know when you'll want to read something great.
