Las huellas en el desierto (Spanish Edition) Maha Akhtar

Maha Akhtar nos sorprende una vez más con esta desgarradora historia de espionaje, amor, guerra, esperanza y traición durante la ocupación de la península árabe por el Imperio Otomano en la Primera Guerra Mundial.

Khalid y Noura logran escaparse de Turquía, pero al llegar a El Líbano, él es condenado por espionaje y ahorcado en una plaza pública. Noura huye entonces a El Cairo donde se encuentra con Salah, compañero de su difunto marido en el movimiento de liberación y que al poco tiempo debe partir rumbo a Jordania con un ejército al mando de Lawrence de Arabia para atacar el golfo de Aqaba. Será en El Cairo donde Noura conozca a Rania y el grupo de mujeres que se reúnen habitualmente en su café. Mientras los hombres descubrirán el alto precio que deben pagar por su participación en la Revuelta árabe, estas mujeres librarán su propia guerra en el terreno de la familia y el amor.
