A Sorcerer's Apprentice: A Skeptic's Journey into the CIA's Project Stargate and Remote Viewing

John Herlosky

Follow the fascinating story of one man's journey into the realm of the fantastic: the CIA-sponsored psychic spies with the ability to extend their consciousness to accurately describe targets not only half a world away but to look into the future as well. It all sounded like science fiction to John Herlosky after reading an expose by former member of the CIA's Project Stargate, Dr. David Morehouse. Two years later, skeptical but intrigued by the possibilities implied, John entered the classroom of Dr. Morehouse to find out the truth—and never looked back. Sorcerer's Apprentice is an autobiographical account of the author's experience learning the CIA-sponsored scientifically validated form of extrasensory perception called "remote viewing." The book chronicles the author's journey from interested skeptic to operational remote viewer working his first mission as well as his former life as a police officer and private military contractor. He takes you on a journey from the crushing depths and pathos of the wreck of the Titanic to the fate of a downed pilot missing for 19 years from the first Gulf War. Witness the personal turmoil as the author's long-held beliefs clash with the powerful implications of his experiences.

As a university student, I exactly feel bored with reading. If their teacher requested them to go to the library in order to make a summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just minor students that have reading's heart and soul or real their hobby. They just do what the educator wants, like asked to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that studying is not important, boring and can't see colorful photos on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise, words say, many ways to reach Chinese's country.
