Silent Kill David A. Fingerman

Minneapolis police officer, Louise Miller, is on a mission to find a missing cop - one of the few men on the force she can call a friend. When his body is found, she defies her captain's order to leave it to the detectives and starts her own investigation. She discovers that the murdered officer is just a small piece of a deranged mind's puzzle. The further she digs, the more her own life unravels, putting herself and everyone she cares for in danger.
