La Russia dopo l'URSS: Dal 1985 a oggi (Quality paperbacks) (Italian Edition) Francesco Benvenuti
Nel 1985 l'elezione di Michail Sergeevic Gorbacëv alla guida del Partito comunista dell'Unione Sovietica aprì una nuova fase nella storia mondiale. Parole come glaznost e perestrojka simboleggiano la fine della Guerra fredda segnata nella storia dalla caduta del Muro di Berlino. Ora, a oltre vent'anni da quella data, è possibile fare un bilancio di un periodo che ha visto la Russia attraversare trasformazioni epocali: la caduta dei regimi comunisti, conflitti etnici, la nascita di nuovi Stati e nuove alleanze politiche e militari. Un volume per comprendere meglio non soltanto l'enigmatica figura di Putin e la sua influenza sulla scena internazionale, tra pulsioni autoritarie e obiettivi di modernizzazione, ma la stessa società russa alla ricerca di una propria identità dopo settantaquattro anni di regime comunista.
