The Extinction Trilogy: 1: The Angel of Death Neal Kamper

When two men and a mysterious woman meet in a mysterious twist of fate, not only does it begin the story of how their untouchable relationship blossoms and then wilts, but it also starts a horrific chain of events that could threaten the entire universe's existence. Based in the far future, this unlikely trio must use all means necessary to overcome this terror before it's too late. On the way, they meet up with many strange characters, who eventually get entwined in their strange tale as the union fight for justice. However, at the end of it all only one shall be named "the good," and the other...The very evil that wishes to enslave the human race. Everything you read in the following book and indeed the entire trilogy is based on Neal Kamper's very own dreams, personal events and tragic goings on upon the planet Earth, all adapted to deliver a chilling message to you, the reader. If you dare to read on, that is...
