L. P. Dover's tantalizing Second Chances series gets a change of scenery as the Carolina Cougars' infamous bad boy heads to the West Coast. His best laid plans call for seduction—but a driven career woman has him begging for more.

Trying to live down his very public indiscretions, Carolina Cougars kicker Jaxon Reed feels like the most hated man in the NFL. When he's traded away, his new teammates in California don't waste any time making his life miserable. Unfortunately for them, Jaxon's no easy target. As payback, he sets his sights on the quarterback's sister: a sultry brunette who's curvy, confident, and sexy as hell. But what begins as a revenge fling turns into so much more.

Bristol Thomas doesn't have time for games, especially those played by her brother's Neanderthal teammates. A talented interior designer with lofty goals, she doesn't know the first thing about football, or Jaxon—except that he's exactly the type of man she usually avoids. But when his deep laugh and deeper kisses break through her walls, she becomes the target of a fan who's obsessed with Jaxon. Now she needs to know that Jaxon has her back . . . because he already has her heart.
