Nephi took one look at the torn linen swatch and knew it was Elisheba's. "She was here."

"So where is she now?" Laman demanded.

A shudder ran through Nephi's body. His fifteen-year-old sister had been abducted. "The sooner we tell Father, the better."

Nephi pulled off his turban and ran his fingers through his hair. He felt nauseated. Elisheba had probably been captured some time ago as it was. In the distance, he saw darkened silhouettes against the horizon. "Someone's coming," Nephi said.

The exhilarating tale of Lehi and his family continues in A Light in the Wilderness, the second volume of the acclaimed Out of Jerusalem series. As they travel toward the promised land, dangers and tempests beset Lehi's and Ishmael's families, until the unthinkable happens: a marauding tribe abducts Lehi's daughter, Elisheba. Nephi and his brothers vow to bring their beloved sister back safely. But as months stretch into years, can they?

Fast-paced and carefully researched, bestselling author H. B. Moore delivers a heartpounding and thought-provoking novel that is sure to delight fiction and history lovers alike.
