Shango: Ifa and the Spirit of Lightning Awo Fa'lokun Fatunmbi

Shango is the name of a Spiritual Force associated with the power of lightning in the West African religious tradition called Ifa . The word Shango is the name of a historical figure who was the fourth Alafin (Community Chief) of Oyo. The name has also been given to a complex convergence of Spiritual Forces that are key elements in the Ifa concept of courage and justice. These Spiritual Forces form the essence of Shango's role in the Spiritual Realm and are at the foundation of the process of spiritual transformation. It is lightning that reaches from the Realm of the Ancestors to Earth as a reminder of the humbling power that exists within Nature itself. Lightning is the Ifa symbol for Divine Justice.

David Blackwood:

As a scholar exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher questioned them to go to the library or make summary for some reserve, they are complained. Just minor students that has reading's spirit or real their passion. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring and also can't see colorful pictures on there. Yeah, it is to be complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Shango: Ifa and the Spirit of Lightning can make you feel more interested to read.
