Henri (UP Cincomilnovecientos) (Spanish Edition) Olga Carra

Ficción sobre la realidad del pintor francés Henri Marie Raymond de Tolouse-Lautrec Monfa. Narra la terrible enfermedad que lo aqueja, y a pesar de ella es un hombre que ayuda al prójimo y que desea la felicidad del otro. La atmósfera en que desarrolla su pintura expresionista es cautivante, libertina; sus musas son todas mujeres del bajo fondo parisino. Se entrelaza con temáticas universales como el incesto, los presagios, el amor, la muerte, la moral, el destino, entre otras. Destaca además el trato de la mujer en la París del S XIX: tienen que prostituirse para lograr un trabajo, coperas, bailarinas, y cuando pasan los albores de la juventud, son abandonadas sin miramientos. Refleja el clima de la pobreza, hiriente y cruel. La falta de educación los inclina hacia destinos inesperados. Pero al final de la obra asoma el amor verdadero, sin barreras, sin discriminaciones.
