Requiem per una tonaca (Italian Edition) Kateuan Zifor

Piero, tornato a Roma dopo aver trascorso molti anni all'estero, avverte un cupo e profondo malessere. Tutto da allora è cambiato.

? ben consapevole che non ci si può volgere indietro, e soprattutto che non si dovrebbe mai ritornare nei luoghi che si sono tanto amati. Chi rammenta il passato è perduto!

Ma che cosa gli resta nella vita, se non il ricordo? Questo gli ha consentito di andare avanti, in un continuo oscillare: fra gioiosa esaltazione e cieca disperazione.

Quali terribili segreti si nascondono nel suo animo, se non vuole confessarli neppure a se stesso? Accettare di aver fallito nella vita comporta una mente lucida, e la sua non lo è più da tempo; la sconfitta è una merce che nessuno vuole comprare! Alla sua età è ormai troppo tardi per ravvedersi, quando le colpe e le azioni infami che ha compiuto, gli hanno già intaccato lo spirito come piaghe insanabili.

Tutto sembra essere compromesso, quando i ricordi più belli svaniscono, e lasciano spazio al rimorso, che diventa insopportabile!

Piero, ora, desidera soltanto porre fine al suo tormento, scomparendo nel nulla...

A questo punto, però, come per incanto, gli si offre uno spiraglio di luce...

La sua vita potrà ancora avere un senso?
